PURIFIED OPERATIONS

1. There were no violations.
2. There was a larger usage of Shoey water.
3. Things were quiet.
4. Don and Justin pulled pump #1
5. Two manhole inserts were ordered from Morgan Welding.

David Smith reported about the accuracy of meter #5. David will get a cost of the chart recorder and meter. And will change the chart recorder.

Don Mast reported that he talked to a gentleman who is interested in the Bell Property.

SOLICITOR

Mark Koch had a draft copy of a resolution to amend water system rates and regulations to include fire testing notification and penalties.

There was discussion about the warehouse doing fire tests using one million gallons in a year that we do not bill. We bill $359.11 per quarter per warehouse.

Rebecca Battle paid her taxes so there was no sheriff sale so the authority is moving forward with the sheriff sale.

A motion was made by Thomas L. McKinney and seconded by Don Mast to adjourn the meeting at 8:15 P.M. Meeting adjourned.
