C/D MATURING JUNE 30TH

A motion was made by Thomas L. McKinney and seconded by Don Mast to roll them over on June 30th. The motion passed with unanimous affirmative vote.

BELLEVUE PUMP STATION

Justin explains the basket on the pictures, it has been collecting paper towels and keeping them from getting in the pumps. The towels are coming from the warehouses, and the board must find which one. There was a discussion about the warehouse usage of paper towels that do not break down.

Justin will do an inspection of the warehouses to see if he can find which one is using the paper towels, that are causing issues at the Bellevue pump station.

PURIFIED OPERATIONS

1. There were no violations.
2. The well tripped out one time.
3. CCR Reports are ready to hand out. David Smith will do the warehouses and Don & Darlene will do Perry Meadows and Charles Estates on Thursday.

The chairman reported that Justin and Don pumped manholes on the Mohrsville Road. Most were full of water.

There is a leak at manhole #1 and manhole #9.

A motion was made by Don Mast and seconded by David Smith to adjourn the meeting at 7:55 P.M. Meeting adjourned.
